On question 1...

In the statement of facts, GAO stated "After EPA program and regional offices request chemical assessments, the IRIS Program develops a draft assessment..." (pg 5, ln 5-6).

In our original response that triggered this follow-up,

New versions of responses to GAO follow-ups 1 and 6, incorporating discussion with Jennifer yesterday, are ready for your review. I've attached the documentation for Q1, as well as the air submission for Q6 as well.

GAO requested ORD's copies of the initial draft prioritizations from the program offices as well. Those files are too big to send in one email. And will require sending over a few messages – we can coordinate with OPARM for that. My intent would be to send the files in each of the program office specific folders from my Onedrive account. I've given each of you access if you want to take a quick look. Let me know if it isn't letting you in. 1. In comment 15, ORD suggested adding information routing nominations through the appropriate National Program Manager as the "current practice for soliciting nominations" for chemical assessments. If this is the new means of soliciting requests for assessments, please provide some evidence (a memo? guidance?) stating that the process for submitting

6. In our exit conference, we requested copies of the re-confirmation emails ORD had already received from program offices in the latest survey, as well as copies of any re-confirmations subsequently received. Please provide these as requested.
